Brynciencyn Anglesey on Bank Holiday Monday, 13-43pm 1st May 2004.

The Arrive Alive Van was placed on the grass with a view out of the village towards Llanfair PG. The people in the pub opposite said that he was also there the previous bank holiday and was after tourists on their way home. They suggested I wrote to the tourist board about it, they said they had never seen the Man in The van! Another example of Community policing at it's best
