People for Proper Policing in North Wales

With the permission of Inspector Andrew Williams, the district Inspector – Holyheadfrom his NWPF website Blog ... we publish AND TAKE NOTE from this important Quote by Theodore Roosevelt,

'It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood, who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again; because there is not effort without error and shortcomings; but who does actually strive to do the deed; who knows the great enthusiasm, the great devotion, who spends himself in a worthy cause, who at the best knows, in the end, the triumph of high achievement and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly. So that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat'.

Theodore Roosevelt (1858 - 1919), the Sorbonne, Paris April 23, 1910

The PPP comments ... we are outspoken critics of past and RECENT Police priorities AND activities in North Wales But we clearly state and DEBATE our case and research our policies. We have been proven to be correct on ALL major issues. We are equally outspoken supporters of Officers like Inspector Williams who really practices what he preaches which also corresponds very closely to what the PPP has been campaigning for, for 4 years.

We want those those cold and timid souls in the Police Authority, Police Headquarters, the councils and all the so called 'partnerships' to stand up and be counted and enter the Arena which is, contractually and morally their responsibility, not ours!
